

How to customise your FT.com account

EDHEC Business School

Create your account

As an enrolled student, visit www.ft.com and click on sign-in using your EDHEC login.

FINANCIAL TIMES

Sign in

Email address

Next

Help?

- 1 Tick the Keep me signed in box when you log in.
- 2 Save FT.com as your homepage or as a bookmark in your browser.
- 3 Download the FT App on your smartphone or tablet.
- 4 Get started on myFT by clicking on +Add to myFT for the topics or columnists that interest you.
- 5 Set up instant, daily or weekly email digests for the topics you have added to myFT.
- 6 Subscribe to our range of editorially curated email newsletters.
- 7 Save articles to read later and build shareable lists.
- 8 Read opinion and comment from our top columnists to understand the implications of the main news stories.
- 9 View and read the digital replica of the newspaper with the ePaper.
Build charts in Markets Data to see the impact of events on share prices.
- 10

Top 10 hints & tips

Find your way around

1

Sign into FT.com/
your account

2

Menu

3

Search

4

myFT

5

FastFT

6

Main sections

The screenshot shows the Financial Times website interface with several numbered callouts:

- 1: Sign in button in the top right corner.
- 2: Hamburger menu icon in the top left corner.
- 3: Search icon in the top left corner.
- 4: myFT logo in the top right corner.
- 5: A blue banner with the text "Subscribe to the FT" and images of FT Weekend and Financial Times magazines.
- 6: A row of four image thumbnails at the bottom of the page.

The main content area features a large article titled "Sanofi to stockpile drugs in UK ahead of Brexit" with a sub-headline "Drugmaker's decision reflects growing concern over potential for 'no deal' Brexit". To the right, there is a featured article titled "Apple's $1tn market value is a moving target" with a sub-headline "FT Series Race to a trillion".

Brexit

+ Add to myFT

AUGUST 1, 2018

Brexit

Drugmakers to stockpile drugs in UK before Brexit

Sanofi and Novartis join list of pharma groups with rising concerns over no-deal Brexit

+ Add to myFT

myFT

You choose the topics, we deliver the news

Personalise FT.com using myFT:

- Select topics that interest you and add them to myFT
- Set up instant, daily or weekly email alerts based on the topics you have added to myFT
- Save articles to refer back to them
- Create and share lists of articles

Visit ft.com/myFT

Personalise myFT

- Click on Added to unfollow topics
- Pin topics to keep stories at the top of your page
- Explore popular and recommended topics

Personalise your email alerts

- Visit Contact Preferences
- Sign up to a daily or weekly myFT Email Digest

The screenshot displays the myFT website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the following links: MY FT, Feed, Saved articles, Explore, Newsletters, and Contact Preferences. Below the navigation bar is a search bar with the text "Search and add topics". The main content area is divided into sections: "Latest videos from your topics" and "Topics you follow". Under "Latest videos from your topics", there are three video thumbnails with titles: "Eurozone growth drops as slowdown concerns rise", "Charts That Count: Another China Crisis?", and "EU and US leaders vie for advantage". Under "Topics you follow", there are two article cards. The first card has a red "Added" button with a checkmark and a mouse cursor pointing to it. The second card is titled "The Big Read" and has a red "Added" button with a checkmark. The article content includes headlines like "China's debt threat: How bad is the problem?", "The big flaw: auditing in crisis", "Iraq's Shia militias: capturing the state", "Regional lenders: China's most dangerous banks", and "Amundi: a world where scale counts".

Sharing tools

Gift articles

As a premium subscriber, you can gift up to 20 articles a month to non-subscribers and they can read the full article for free. Simply click the share icon to gift an article via link or email.

Save stories for later

Whether you use our apps or FT.com anything you save will appear in myFT.

Share via social media

You can also share articles on Twitter, Facebook and LinkedIn and your contacts can read one full article for free. Simply click the icons and create your post.

#fintechFT Premium

Keep up with the latest news, views and comment on digital disruption in financial services.

WEEKLY

Unsubscribe

Brussels Briefing

Stay up to speed on developments across Europe with news and comment from our Brussels bureau.

DAILY

Unsubscribe

Due Diligence Premium

Keep up to date on M&A with the day's top stories and analysis of global deals and dealmakers.

EVERY TUESDAY TO FRIDAY MORNING

Unsubscribe

Business School

Keep up to date with business education, training and career development.

WEEKLY

Unsubscribe

Subscribe

Email newsletters

Unique insight and commentary straight to your inbox

Subscribe to our curated email newsletters on a range of topics: from Brexit to tech, our editors scour the web to deliver the best stories to you, illuminated with original FT comment and analysis.

Some of our most popular newsletters include:

- FirstFT
- Brexit Briefing
- Business Schools
- #techFT
- Martin Sandbu's Free Lunch

ft.com/newsletters

FT

The ePaper

What made the front page today?

View and read a digital replica of today's printed newspaper or access any editions from our 30-day archive.

The ePaper is optimised for easy reading on your phone or tablet with a pinch-and-zoom function and offline access.

ft.com/epaper

FINANCIAL TIMES
Newspaper of the Year
THURSDAY 7 AUGUST 2018
WORLD BUSINESS NEWS
ASIA

War footing

How did Brexit drive Bng stockpiling? — ROULA KHAJE
KHALAF, PAGE 8

The Big Flaw

Unrest as poll result delayed in Zimbabwe

A wounded man runs for shelter in Zimbabwe's capital Harare as soldiers confronted opposition demonstrators alleging election fraud, triggering violence. International observers yesterday expressed concerns that the results of Monday's presidential election, the first since Robert Mugabe was ousted, had not yet been announced.

"The longer results are being delayed, the more questions will be raised and concerns will deepen," said Ellen John van der Linde, head of a mission of US-based observers. Election authorities said that Mr Mugabe's inner party, the ruling Zanu PF, had secured a partial majority majority, triggering outrage among supporters of the opposition.

Full story page 4

Briefing

- US offshore cash levy parts in UK stockpile push
The Treasury has published plans to raise revenue by imposing a new tax on earnings hoarded overseas, raising $340bn over 10 years. The move has been sharply criticised by digital industry groups. — PAGE 2
- Riyadh detains two female activists
Samar Badawi, pictured, to whom the US awarded the International Women of Courage Award in 2012, and Huda al-Sayid, have been arrested, activists said. — PAGE 4
- Beijing signals easing of debt crackdown
The Communist party politburo has signalled a shift away from China's battle against excessive debt towards support for short-term growth, as the US trade war threatens the economy. — PAGE 4
- Farm prices spur fresh India rate rise
The central bank has lifted rates 25 basis points, its 21st move since 2015, to curb inflation. — PAGE 2

Google ready for bow to Beijing concerns it plots Chinese return

FT

Navigate the ePaper

You can access the ePaper from the Menu, by clicking on Today's Newspaper (ePaper).

Alternative viewing modes

When reading the ePaper the right-hand side menu offers Gallery or Digest views for easier reading on mobile or tablet.

Read with no internet connection

Download the application for offline reading.

Questions?

We want you to get the most from your subscription so we have provided you with the support of a Customer Success team.

The team works to make sure you are aware of the full offering of FT.com. They can support you with demos & consultations and can answer your general enquiries.

Email emea.customersuccess@ft.com to start your FT journey.

